In the opinion of your committee the time has come for the Township Committee to take hold of the question of surveying the Town, establishing street lines, opening of new streets, the establishment of gades upon the same, with a view of a general system of sewerage.

A town's reputation is made up of its natural advantages of location, of its acquired improvement; and convenience and its social atmosphere. Therefore your committee are of the opinion, that while we are favorably located on hillsides and valley, have our share of con-

On Bloomfield avenue near Glenhurst avenue, adjoining Mr. Corby's residence, that the court is well under way, with the probability of completion the latter part of next week.

One remarkable feature of the club is the interest which the young people of the neighborhood show in its support. The club now numbers eleven active members, and the prospects are good for a further increase.

Applicants for membership will please send their application, signed by a member of the club, to the Secretary, Mr. Fred Williams, and it will be considered at the special meeting to be called next Thursday evening.

The Chemistry laboratory, was sold to Harris Bros. for $6,400. The lot in the rear of Schwob's Hotel, 38½100, fronting on the alley, was sold to E. S. Schweigert and J. R. Harvey for $11,000. A lot on Bloomfield Avenue, 502x200, adjoining N. H. Dault's carriage shop, was sold to Mr. J. Scheiber for $1,500. The store, now occupied by R. Scheiber & Co., on Bloomfield Ave., was bought by Thomas Baxter for $4,000.

—A great many visitors were present at the closing exercises of the Centre Primary School, Miss Drapery, on Thursday morning. The carrying out of the pre-arranged programme was seriously interfered with by the illness of a number of the scholars, who were expected to take part. The exercises consisted of singing and recitations. One of the interesting features of the exercises was the exhibition of industrial work, consisting Directly after the first of August, S. D. Lauder Co. of Newark, will commence extensive alterations in the building recently purchased by them at 657 and 659 Broad street, and as soon as they are completed will occupy the entire building, to be used for the display of the finer grades of pianos, grands and uprights. The second floor will be used for general warerooms—convenient alterations will be made in the music rooms for the use of music teachers and a large room for storage purposes—the fourth floor will be for work connected with the repairs of pianos and organs, and the fifth floor will contain improvements which they will make, will place their establishment at the head of the city, and will give them the largest and finest piano and organ store in the city.
